BICYCLE RACES.

Contests Between the Juvenile Riders-

Good Time Made. The announcement in yesterday's Ru-PUBLICAN that the Otto Club, under the manage ment of Master Berrien, would give a series of bicycle races at lowa Circle caused a select gang of all the "gamius" in town to lend tone to the sports by their presence. There were five entries, but two of the young ters had their liver-pads pierced before they got to the Circle; the consequence was their "sand" played out, and they withdrew from the contest, the remaining three, Berrien, Hamilton and Malet, coming up to the scratch. The quarter mile race was very exciting. Hamilton making i in 160%, and Berren, just a quarter of a second behind, passing the tape almost neck and neck. In the half-mile Malet came to the front, with Hamilton second; time, 2:24. In the first quarter of the mile race Berrien led; time, 1:99; Hamilton, 1:55; in the second half mile Berrien passed thy tape in 2:493, Hamilton not far behind, Berrien keeping his lead to the end. Malet took the slow race, time not given. The races were very good all through, and the boys evinced pluck and muscle. The audience

POTOMAC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION. Over Fifty Churches Represented by Delegates or by Letter. WATERFORD, LOUDOUN Co., VA., Aug. 23.

The Potomac Baptist Association met here on duesday morning last, the 17th instant. The ociation was opened by prayer by Rev. Dr. Griffiths, of North Carolina. After organizing. Rev. I. D. Lake was elected moderator; Brother J. R. Nunn, secretary; Brother McCormick, assistant retary, and Brother Adams, treasurer. The moderator, in a few appropriate words, thanked the association for their continued confidence and faith in him. Hev. P. T. Darren, the local minister, made the welcoming address. After the appointment of several committees the members adjourned to a beautiful grove near by to listen to the annual sermon, which was preached by the Rev. Samuel Athey. Rev. O. Ellerson read the lesson from the sixteenth chapter of Luke, and the hymns "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "I am a Soldies of the Care of the camp, and the contributions to meet the expenses of the camp, the hymns "Jerus, Lover of My Soul and Am a Soldier of the Cross," &c., were sung. The Rev. Mr. Ather then preached the annual sermon, which was replete with Christian feeling, that that the soul and good advice, The hymn transacted: Letters from the different churches were read, and the committees on relief of disabled ministers, on Sunday schools, and Bible board, were read, and their reports adopted. The Rev W. F. Junnoway preached in the afternoon from the ret chapter of St. John S. John S.

The business attended to was the state of the sermons. The singing was very good indeed, Mrs. W. F. Paxson, of Waterford, presiding at the organ. The Rev. Mr. Flippo preached in the afternoon and the Rev. Mr. Woulf at night. The old faultiar hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung at night. Two thousand people were present this day. LAST DAY.

The bosiness brought up was foreign and State missions, many good words being said in favor of both. The Rev. Dr. Hatcher, of Richmond, presched from the nineteenth chapter of John and thirty-eighth verse. The sermon was a most mas-terly effort, being impressive, instructive, sensible, far-reaching, and eloquent. The congregation stened to it with the utmost attention. hymn "I Will Sing of My Redemer" was sung at its conclusion. The Rev. Dr. Kerns also presched during the day. Over fifty churches were repreented either by delegate or letter. Upward of one nundred ministers and delegates were present. The arrangements for feeding and lodging the strangers were perfect and good order provalled The Potomac Baptist Association adjourned at four p. m. After a session filled with interest and good deeds done everybody seemed to be bappy, and the sun of Friday went down on good work done for Christianity in general. The next session will be held at Charlestown, W. Va., a year hence

BALL AT GAITHERSBURG.

Brilliant Cathering at the Summit Hill Motel.

Gaithersburg, MD., Aug. 23.—Last evening a very enjoyable hop was given by Mr. Juan Boyle, the gentleman in charge of the Gaithersburg Hotel. This hotel is situated a short distance from the railroad station, and is surrounded by fifteen acres of wood land, has hot and cold water, and a fine ball-room. Although Mr. B. has had charge of the hotel for only a few weeks, its auccess is assured if the stockholders show their ta success is assured if the stockholders show their proper wisdom in regard thereto. The grounds surrounding the hotel were beautifully illiminated with Chinese lanterss, which, viewed from the wide plazzas, formed ogether with the decoration of the ball-room, which consisted of a centre-piece decorated in a ovel and artistic manner with farns and leaves othered from the surrounding woods, giving it a wild and rustic appearance, which was greatly admired by the many present, numbering in all about two hundred. Although the majority came from the surrounding country, there was quite a number from Washington, which is conclusive vidence of the ps pularity of the genial proprietor.

WHO WELL THERE. The following are among these who were pres-ent: Miss Taney, niece of the late Chief-Justice; Miss Mena Waring, who sang with Campanini during his engagement in Washington last winter; Mrs. William R. Hutton, wife of Eugineer Hutton; Mrs. Campbell Carrington, Mrs. Chubb and Miss Chubb, Mr. Legare, of South Carolina; Hon. George Peters, Dr. C. J. Maddox, Mr. William Viers Bouic of the Rockville bar; Mr. William Key Hunter, Mr. Hutchinson, of New York; the beautiful Miss J. Stellwagen.of Washington, for a sponge-cup, and one to J. I. hover, of Washington, for trade-mark for botanical medicine. There were in all 52 patents, nine designs, seventeen trade-marks, two labels, and seven reissues. ille, who is very handsome; Mrs. Edle, Mrs Whitman, Mrs. Dr. Travis, of New York: Mr. ireen, of the Montgomerium; Mr. Høyden, of the Post; Mr. Miller, of the Star; Dr. Shreve, and many others too numerous to mention. Mrs. Boyle did not make her appearance on account of the re-cent death in her family. Mesers, Charles P. Williams, Legare, Martin, and Kilgore acted as floor ers, and did much to add to the pleasure and omfort of the guests. A BOUNTIFUL REPAST was spread about eleven o'clock. The tables were decorated with ferns, variegated leaves, and sunowers, which gave them a very unique and deasing appearance. After supper, the tripping of he light fantastic was continued until 1 a "wee ma' hours" of the morning. Weber's and, of Washington, furnished the music for the occasion Mr. Boyle intends adding to the pleasure of his guests by giving entertainments of like nature very Saturday night during the remainder of the scason, having made arrangements with the Bal-timore and Ohio Railroad to convey passengers to and from Gaithersburg at reduced rates. BURIED BY A FALLING BANK.

One Man Killed and Another Seriously Injured. Frank Turner was killed instantly and Miles Johnson severely injured yesterday by the falling of a bank of sand and gravel in South Washington between L and M and Sixth and Seventh streets about moon yesterday. Both were col-ored men, and with three others were at work get-ting out sand and gravel for a contractor named Richard Shelton, The bank belongs to the Potomac erry Company. Some of the workmen noticed that the walls of the bank were weak, and called Turner's attention to it. He had confidence, however, that it would not fall, and replied, in answer to the warning, "that bank is not going to fall as soon as you think it is." In a few minutes

HE WAS COVERED UP, his skull being fractured by the weight of the stones and sand that fell on him. Johnson was ompletely covered up also, but was soon dug out he rendering some assistance by helping himself at with a knife. The body of Turner was re-noved to his residence on L, between Four-and-a half and Sixth streets southwest, where it was viewed soon afterward by Coroner Patterson. Af-ter hearing the statements of the witnesses to the celdent the Coroner gave a certificate of death t was clear that death resulted from care urner was thirty-five years of age, and has a wifbut no children. The bank was eighteen feet high The scene was visited by a large number during the afternoon and evening. Turner had only re-cently been able to resume work, having had his leg broken by a similar accident at the same place ome weeks since.

Bucked Senseless with a Stone. Mr. J. J. Shipman, a well-known contractor, was the victim of a terrible assault at the bands of John and James McGarrity yesterday oon at Woody's, on the Little Falls road, several alles above Georgetown. Shipman and the Mo-arritys are parties to a suit in equity in which Mr. John N. Oliver was to take some testimony yesterday. The suit grows out of a contract they had with the Government out West. Shipman was on his way to the city when the elder McGarrity threatened that he would settle the suit, likewise Shipman, with a knife, cutting at him several times. Only the clothing, however, was cut. It is alleged that young McGarrity then struck Mr. Shipman with a stone, knocking him sensels Mr. Shipman was brought to the city soon after-ward and taken to the National Hotel, where he is under medical attendance.

A Natural Curiosity. The wife of a prominent business man gave birth last Sanday to a male child of extraorinary proportions. They were as follows: Weight 22½ pounds: length, 24 inches; circumference of head, 13¾ inches; breadth of shoulders, 9 inches circumference at hips, 20¼ inchess-The child lived

AT CAMP-MEETING.

Services Yesterday-Programme for To Morrow-New Arrivals. WASHINGTON GROVE, Aug. 23.—The services last night were very impressive, being conducted by Rev. Mr. Smith, of Grace M. E. Church, Washington. After an earnest exhoration from penitents presented thomselves at the mourners bench. The prayer-meetings of the morning were held as usual, and were very well attended. exercises at half-past ten o'clock were opened by singing hymn 271 of the Methodist Hymnal, fol-lowed in prayer by Rev. Mr. Smith of Grace Church.

SECOND DAY.

The business alreaded to was the state of the training the state of the state tained by his exceptionally able sernon. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Lanahan, pursuing the same train of thought in an exhortation of unusual churches, the report of the delegates from the General Association of Virginia; also, the subject of education. The morning sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Pearson, of Petersburg, and he was followed by the Rev. Mr. Kerfoot, of Baltimore. These gentlemen both preached excellent sermons. The surgence was record indeed Mrs. It is a subject of the sanctuary, that of administration of the delegates from the description of the sanctuary and the subject of the sanctuary, that of administration of the delegates from the delegates from the delegates from the delegates from the General Association of Virginia; also, the subject of churches and force, which seemed to make a most profound impression upon all to whom the earnest two o'clock was largely attended, and the exercises were very interesting. THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER was held this afternoon in the tabernacle at three o'clock. Every available seat was occupied, and the services were opened promptly at the hour designated by the presiding elder announcing the familiar Hymn 438—

Arise, my soul, arise; Shake off thy guilty fearswhich the entire audience joined in singing with a heartiness and zest that made the grove resound with the familiar melod. After a cordial and affectionate invitation to all who loved the Master to unite in commemorating the passion and death of the Redeemer, the solemn service progressed. First the ministers of the gospel present approached the communion table, and after reading the order of the administration of the Lord's sup-per by Dr. Lanahan, the bread and wine, emblems of the broken body and shed blood, were partaken of, after which an invitation was exended to the congregation, a large number, perhaps responding to the call. The services occupied fully two hours and were of the most solemn and impressive character, a feeling of profound awe and reverence seeming to pervade the entire as-semblage, whicher as participants or mere spec-tators. Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, of Bladensburg, returned to his home this morning. Mr. Van Arsdale is one of the youngest preachers of the Balti-more Conference, and he will be greatly missed from the grounds, having done much to add to the interest and support of the young people's meet-

REV. JOHN S. DEALE. of Ryland Chapel, South Washington, has again returned to the camp. One of the ladies of the camp, missing one of her dresses, made a vigilant search for the same, which resulted in finding it in the custody of one of the many colored girls who infest the camp. The girl says the dress was given to her by another girl to be washed. There has also been missing a hammock. Mrs. Saville, who has been sick the greater part of her sojourn here. does not seem to improve. There are besides Mrs. Saville several other invalids on the grounds, all of which are under doctors' care. Rev. John S. Deale, of Washington, preaches for us to-more morning. Among the arrivals to-day are Mrs. G. W. Utermehle, Mrs. Dr. L. Taylor, Miss M. Jones Mrs. W. H. Pope, E. Davis, esq., and Mr. W. M. Davis, of Washington; Dr. Harding and daughter, of Montgomery County, and Mrs. J. Boyle, Miss Bessie Chubb, Clarence Deringer, and Mrs. Chubb,
